

Figure. A review of 36 documents that reported the prevalence of NTDs per 10,000 births* before and after the initiation of flour fortification with folic acid in 13 countries.

* The denominator can include live births, still births or terminations.